

SO YOU CAME TO THE GAME, HUH ? FREE TICKETS TO THE NEXT EVENT

So you came to the game, huh? But have you ever considered the real game? The game of life. The one you are inevitable in, whether you realize it or not. Even worse, whether you choose to play or not. Hence, coming to this game of life wasn't a choice as coming to this game: And more importantly, in this game of life you're not a spectator, but a player. As a player you have not choice but to play, as you are born into it, but you have choice to win or loose. The aim of me asking this question, "so you came to the game," is to cheer you on to be a winner and not a loser. As you have no choice but to play in this game, whether you realize it or not, you have no choice to the consequences of loosing, even if you're an atheist. That is, losers go to hell's fire upon death and winners go to paradise. Why then not play to win? But at last you are at lost to what I'm talking about, the game of God, hell, Paradise, etc. What is all this!? Allow this illustration of a popular sport, to clear it up:

A young man asked him how he could have the strength to keep going, and he said, why is it you keep saying you're saved, when you haven't reached heaven yet? And the preacher said, because Jesus hit the ball over the fence! It's a homerun! And he asked the young man, is there anything that anybody can do? No. Can somebody throw the ball back in the fence and make it not count? No. But the player must still run the bases to win his game.

The player must still run the bases for the homerun to count. If he hits it over the fence but then sits down, there is no score given.

The player must still repent (1st base), must still be baptized Christ's actual name (2nd base), must still receive the Holy Ghost evidenced by speaking in another tongue (3rd base), and continue on unto perfection until Jesus comes (heading for HOME base: going to church, fellowship with believers, forgiving one another, reading the Bible daily, praying daily, speaking in tongues daily, having a real relationship with Jesus daily, etc.) I thought wow, what a way to present truth that even a young boy could understand! BASEBALL! How cool is that!

Do you have to run the bases? Why wouldn't you want to, is my question to you? You can be apart of the winning team, you can proudly run those bases and rest in peace and be assured that you will attain the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus, why wouldn't you want to be apart of that? Even better, running the first three bases will guarantee you reaching all the bases.

Remember the Word of God is the final UMPIRE, don't let it judge you "OUT" because you refused to do the simple act of walking the three bases when Jesus already hit the homerun! When all of creation is cheering at the end of this world as we know it and the beginning of eternity starts, as we will then know it, do not be on the losing team, when all you had to do is walk the three bases.

Get back in the game, head for 1st base, satan is a liar, Jesus told you that you CAN start over, do it, do it today, do it right now as you read this note, you never know what hour the UMPIRE may call you out of the game, do it now. The Holy Spirit is there with you, let him minister to you right now, in Jesus name. Then run the race, and rejoice all over again, all of heaven is cheering for you right now, come on, join us, run like crazy, it's fun to serve God, the only difference is ... it's not a game (Forwarded to me by Sis B.J).

Consider this track a free ticket to the next even, that is, if accepted and carried out - "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost" (Acts 2:38). You'll have a free pass to the next event, which is paradise with God and more importantly to some, escape from eternal torment in a literal lake of fire from being a loser. Don't be a loser, play to win today! Whilst you are there playing the other games of life and going to these world games time is running out, and when God puts his hands on time's stopwatch that is it. Make sure you are winning the game of life before time runs out and you'll be lost eternally. You have a beginning chance today. The stopwatch is at zero, ready, set, live!

Tracks are made by L.I.M but anyone can distribute them and can obtain them free. If placed in your establishment and you consider it an infringement, don't contact L.I.M or anyone affiliated with the ministry, much more Mr. McQuick. We only make the tracks; any arbitrary person can distribute them. To those who do, it would be good to seek permission first before distributing here. Thank you.
